Gamma Solutions proves once again they are an industry leader being awarded Partner of the Year.

Melbourne March 23rd 2012 – At the Intermec Partner Summit, Gamma Solutions an industry leader in advanced data collection systems, was announced as Intermec's Partner of the Year.

The Intermec Partner of the Year Award is in recognition of exemplary business behaviours in terms of revenue, quality solutions and ability to integrate new and emerging technologies into their customer networks. The award also recognises a company's commitment to customer service, support and training; something that Gamma Solutions prides itself on.

"As one of the largest and most innovative data capture technology resellers in Australia we are committed to providing quality, practical and flexible solutions to suit the needs of our customers" Michael Atallah, Managing Director of Gamma Solutions said. "It is an honour to be recognised by Intermec for our hard work and dedication. It is really a team effort that has made our success possible".

The award was presented to Gamma Solutions' Northern Region Sales Manager Glenn Batten, by Scott Anderson VP of Global Channels, Michael Muller VP and GM of APAC, as well as Tony Repaci MD of Intermec Australia at the Partner Summit held in Sydney on the 21st and 22nd of March.
